I was in an interview to get admission in an esteemed MBA college. They asked, "What is your weakness" My answer was, "I procrastinate." Apparently, they rejected me. Why? Because they thought I was using this 'mugged-up' word from my coaching institute, where they teach you how to get into these colleges. What an irony.

So instead of using this marketing slang, let me tell you simply - We at Tiger Social are your guide to be visible on Socials, posting consistently driven by Marketing.

What We Work On?

PS: The last one is not a marketing slang :)
